REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Dear Investors,

The Trustees have pleasure in presenting their Nineteenth Annual Report and the audited financial statements of the Schemes of Canbank Mutual Fund (the "Fund") for the year ended 31st March, 2007.

MUTUAL FUND INDUSTRY

The Mutual Fund industry witnessed an impressive growth of 41% during the financial year 2006-07. The Assets Under Management (AUM) grew from Rs.2,31,862 crores (as on 31st March, 2006) to Rs.3,26,329 crores (as on 31st March, 2007).

ECONOMIC SCENARIO

The Indian economy witnessed robust growth during 2006-07 for the fourth year in succession. The GDP growth in 2006-07 was 9.2%, driven by growth in manufacturing and services sector. However, agricultural growth slowed down to 2.7% from 6% a year earlier.

Rising inflation level remained a major concern for Reserve Bank Of India (RBI). In the month of February, 2007, it touched a high of 6.73%. Thereafter, for the week ended 17th March, 2007, the inflation level came down to 6.46%, which was way above the upper limit of tolerance band (5.0%-5.5%) projected by the RBI for 2006-07.

Bank credit grew 28% compared to 31.8% in the fiscal year 2005-06, while deposits grew 23% (previous year 18%).

Broad money or M3 grew by 20.8% from 17% at the end of March 2007

With capital inflows pouring in the country, foreign exchange reserves increased by US$ 47.6 billion during 2006-07 to US$ 199.2 billion. The rising reserves resulted in a stronger rupee. During the fiscal year 2006-07, the rupee appreciated by 2.3% against the dollar.

EQUITY MARKET OVERVIEW

During the year, the major trend for the equity market remained bullish with the BSE Sensex, the market barometer touching a peak level of 14723.88 (intra day high on 9th February, 2007). The market witnessed intermitant correction phases and high level of volatility. The Sensex closed at 13072.10 on 30th March, 2007 with a gain of about 16% over the close of 31st March, 2006.

The upward movement of the index was mainly because of rise in few stocks. The gain of 16% by BSE Sensex was contributed by just four stocks. Excluding these four stocks, having a weightage of 38% in the Sensex, the market return would have been zero during the FY 2006-07. Similarly, during the same period, the CNX Mid-cap Index generated returns of merely 1%, contributed by a single stock. Excluding the returns by this single stock the mid cap index would have reported a decline of 2%. The number of stocks with negative returns outnumbered those with positive returns.

After the announcement of Union Budget 2007-08 the market entered into a major correction phase. On the Budget day itself market shed 540 points. A disappointing Budget and volatile global markets sparked volatility in the domestic market. High inflation, rising interest rates and monetary measures by RBI also affected the sentiment.

Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) and Domestic Mutual Funds, both remained net investors in the equity market during the year. However, there is a significant decline in total investments from both FIIs and domestic mutual funds. Investments by domestic mutual funds in equities contracted by 37% YoY, from net buying of Rs.14,302.20 crs in FY 2006 to Rs.9062.34 crs in FY 2007. Investments of FIIs in equities contracted 46% YoY, from net buying of Rs.48473.8 crs in FY06 to Rs.26032 crs in FY 2007.

The Markets may move in a range in the short term due to rising interest rates and inflation. However, long term trend for market still remains bullish. The medium term outlook for the market will depend on Q4 earnings of the corporate sector.

DEBT MARKET OVERVIEW

Rising inflation level remained the major concern of RBI during the year 2006-07. All the monetary measures taken by the Central Bank were to contain the inflationary pressures on the economy. In a bid to control inflation the RBI hiked its Repo rate five times during the year from 6.50% to 7.75%, and the cash-reserve ratio (CRR) by 1.5 percentage points to 6.5%.

The yields in the Government securities market hardened during the year and the yield curve flattened.

The call money rate edged up during the year in tandem with movements in policy rates. The call rate remained mostly within the corridor set by the RBI's Repo and Reverse Repo rates. However, during the last week of December 2006 and second half of March 2007, the debt market witnessed high level of volatility when the call rate exceeded the Repo rate significantly. Advance tax outflows and hike in CRR resulted in tight liquidity conditions.

RBI's stance to control inflation signals a prolonged spell of tight liquidity and call rates are expected to remain firm in the short term. Commencement of current fiscal's borrowings programme will pressurise yields across the curve. G-Sec yields are likely to remain high in the next few months and the 10Y Benchmark is expected to move in the range of 8.10% to 8.35%.

The liabilities and responsibilities of the Trustees and the Settlers in brief is annexed to this report.

The investment objectives and the performance of each Scheme are summarised in the following paragraphs. It is emphasised, at the outset, that as the Schemes permit investments partly or wholly in shares, bonds, debentures and other scrips or securities whose value can fluctuate, the price and redemption value of the units and the income from them can go up or down with the fluctuations in the market value of the underlying investments.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND PERFORMANCE OF THE SCHEMES

CANFORTUNE '94 SCHEME

Canfortune '94 Scheme, formerly known as GIC Fortune '94 is taken over from GIC Mutual Fund with effect from 15th October, 2005. It is an open ended equity Scheme launched in January, 1994. The objective of the Scheme is to provide long term capital appreciation with periodic dividend distribution, if any. The pattern of investments comprises of investment in equities upto 85%, in debt instruments upto 15% and in money market instruments upto 15%.

Past performance may or may not be sustained in future.

* Date of Inception/Allotment: January 10, 1995.

FUTURE PROSPECTS

Equity markets have been able to close the year with a gain of about 16% over the previous year's close, not withstanding the intermediate corrections and high volatility.

With the economic growth of 8.5% projected for the FY 2007-08, driven mostly by the domestic consumption growth and high capex spending India remains the preferred investment destination. However, rupee appreciation following strong foreign exchange inflows will be an area of concern for the companies having forex earnings.

After the hefty return of 40% in calendar year 2005, followed by 46% in 2006 by the Sensex we can expect moderate returns from equity markets in the short to medium term.

During the FY 2006-07, High inflation level remained the major area of concern for RBI. RBI in its Annual Policy Statement for the FY2007-08, aims at maintaining the inflation in the range of 4.00%-4.05%, which will be conducive for maintaining self-accelerating growth. If inflation and credit growth remains in the comfort zones set by RBI, there could be trend reversal in the interest rates.

Dear Investor(s),

At the outset, we express our sincere gratitude for your continued patronage. To further enhance the investor services, we are evolving various investor friendly measures from time to time.

While taking good care of your investments, it has also been our endeavour to keep you posted the developments in the capital market, be it the investment scenario or the regulations governing the same through our periodical communications.

As per SEBI Regulations, it is mandatory for all the investors to provide "bank account details" in their applications at the time of subscription to units and in redemption requests. This is intended to avoid fraud/misuse or theft of dividend/repurchase/redemption cheques/warrants in transit.

In case you have not furnished the required details in the past, we request you to fill-in the enclosed format and return the same to us. Unitholder(s) may also use the format for change of the existing Bank Mandate.

It is also mandatory for all unit holders (including joint holders) to provide their Permanent Account Number (PAN) allotted by the Income-tax authorities, as per SEBI guidelines. If the units are held jointly, all the unitholders are required to provide PAN Details and should furnish a copy of PAN Card. Submission of PAN is now specified at the time of investment. The relevant details are furnished in the following page.

Kindly note that Electronic Clearing System (ECS) facility is available in the Centres shown below. If you are having Bank A/c in any of these Centres and wish to avail ECS facility to receive direct credit of dividend proceeds in your Bank A/c, please furnish the 9 digit MICR number appearing at the bottom margin of the cheque book issued by your bank. In the alternative, you may enclose a photo copy of a cheque. Unitholders opting for ECS facility will receive an intimation of the credit of dividends to their account.

Assuring you of our best services, always.

With warm regards,
