Reasons For Slower Growth

Structural Issues

Relatively Poor Infrastructure

- Challenges with regards to timely and constant availability of infrastructure

High Logistics Cost

- Poor connectivity leading to higher logistic and transportation cost

Policy Related Issues

License Raj

- Production efforts were government determined rather than market forces

Restrictive Labour Laws

- Limitations on hire and fire
- Restriction on temporary workforce in core production

Inverted Duty Structure

- Importing final products cheaper than domestic manufacturing

Capital and Interest Subsidies over Production

- Inefficiency in Capex
- Sub-par return ratios
